Woodbridge, VA— Belvoir Federal Credit Union is now accepting applications from members for its 2009 Educational Scholarship program. Belvoir Federal Credit Union will award a $1,000 scholarship to a deserving member graduating from high school in 2009 as well as a $1,000 scholarship to a member who is currently enrolled in higher education wishing to further their education. “This is one way we can give back to our members – and encourage them to follow their educational dreams,” stated Patricia S. Kimmel, President/CEO.

For ten years Belvoir Federal Credit Union has awarded more than $25,000 in scholarships. All applications for the 2009 scholarships must be submitted no later than Friday, April 10, 2009.
