IMPORTANT:

Belvoir Federal Credit Union takes the privacy and security of our member's assets and information very seriously. If you find the answer to any of the questions below to be "YES", you must be made aware that these types of transactions are fraudulent in many cases and the money wired is often not recoverable. By continuing with the wire request you acknowledge that Belvoir Federal Credit Union has warned you that this is a high risk transaction and may result in account overdrafts which you will be held responsible for.

YES NO

- Were you promised a large amount of money in return for sending this wire?
- Are you wiring funds which were deposited by someone you do not know?
- Were you instructed to wire money in order to claim lottery or prize winnings?
- Are you wiring money in response to a guaranteed credit card or loan offer?
- Were you instructed to send money to claim an inheritance?
- Are you wiring money in response to an Internet or phone offer?
- Are you sending money to someone you don't know?
- Are you sending money to participate in a foreign lottery?

I understand that Belvoir Federal Credit Union (BFCU) is acting strictly as an agent and will act only on the instructions that I have provided. In the event that the information provided is incomplete or incorrect, I release BFCU from any liability that may result. I understand that BFCU will verify all wires with a phone call to my secure phone numbers on my account record. If contact cannot be made, the wire will not be sent. I authorize BFCU to transfer funds as described herein and debit my account in the amount transferred, plus applicable fees. I understand that BFCU can place no guarantee with regard to the length of time it takes for the funds to be credited to the receiving account after a wire is initiated. International wire transfers may take several weeks and are subject to exchange rate risk. I further understand that if a wire is returned to BFCU due to erroneous information I provided, I will not be refunded wire fees.
