Woodbridge, VA— Belvoir Federal Credit Union has announced the winners of its 2009 scholarship competition. This year's scholarship essay had many high school senior's and college students answering a question about the advantages of saving rather than buying on credit and developing a plan to provide financial security for college years and beyond. The winners included Ms. Gina Fortunato from Gar-Field Senior High School, and Mr. Alexander Mercadante from Brentsville District High School. Both will be attending Virginia Tech in the fall.

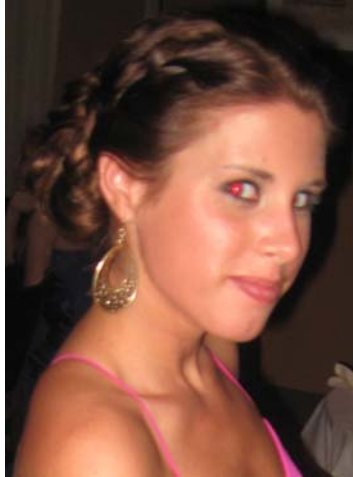

Ms. Mary Connell, a rising sophomore at Virginia Tech, received the continuing student scholarship.
