Belvoir Federal Welcomes New CMO

Woodbridge, VA, October 4, 2010 — Belvoir Federal would like to introduce Jason Lindstrom, the credit union's new Chief Marketing Officer (CMO). Arriving from California, Jason brings with him 20 years of financial services experience, primarily strategic marketing skills that will aid in the progressive growth of Belvoir Federal. Jason's driven momentum will elevate the credit union in the ever growing Belvoir area and community.

After working for California's largest credit union, Jason plans to bring similar successes he had at that credit union to Belvoir Federal. With his previous involvement in the community as President of a credit union league chapter and as a committee member of several community organizations, Belvoir Federal is pleased to welcome him to our military and community focused credit union.

Patricia Kimmel, CEO/President of Belvoir Federal Credit Union, stated, "We welcome Jason to our credit union family and anticipate the innovative and creative talents he will incorporate here at Belvoir Federal through his wealth of expertise and knowledge."

Likewise, Jason is eager to begin his days at Belvoir Federal. In fact, he stated, "I've always looked for a role such as this one that comes with an incredible opportunity and Belvoir Federal is the perfect fit. I welcome the challenges and look to find success in all our marketing and business development efforts."
