Belvoir Federal Wins DCUC Scholarship

Woodbridge, VA, March 4, 2011 — Every year, the Defense Credit Union Council (DCUC) selects volunteers, management, and/or staff of DCUC member credit unions to receive a scholarship to help further the credit union education, knowledge, and leadership skills of the recipients. In 2011, the George E. Myers scholarship fund was awarded to three applicants – one of which was Belvoir Federal’s Marketing Specialist, Ken Worthey, Jr.

With the $3,000 scholarship, Ken will be able to attend a Credit Union Development Education (CUDE) training program in 2012 to further his understanding and experience in the credit union movement. The CUDE program is dedicated to assisting credit unions deliver a core philosophy of “People Helping People.”

Patricia Kimmel, CEO of Belvoir Federal, stated “It is an honor to have one of our employees selected for The DCUC scholarship. Ken can utilize this training as a learning experience and return to us with a wealth of knowledge in credit union philosophy and cooperative principles.”

“It is with great pleasure that I accept this scholarship. With 6 years and counting in the industry, I look forward to using this scholarship to attend the coveted Credit Union Development Education training program next year. I thank the Defense Credit Union Council for providing this scholarship opportunity and Belvoir Federal Credit Union for supporting my educational aspirations” stated Ken.

The Defense Credit Union Council established the George E. Myers Scholarship fund in 1996 in honor of Col. Myers, who was selected to the first DCUC Hall of Honor in August 2000. Since this time, DCUC has awarded 23 scholarships, providing members an opportunity to partake in education classes at virtually little to no cost to their credit union.
