Belvoir Federal Stands Ready in the Event of a Government Debt Default

Woodbridge, VA, July 27, 2011 — Belvoir Federal Credit Union is prepared to serve our members worldwide in the event of a government debt default due to the debt ceiling issue. Various loan and service opportunities are being made available in order to mitigate the financial burden the debt default could potentially cause.

Of the different options available, Belvoir Federal has introduced an Emergency Assistance Loan, skip-a-payment for members who currently have loans with the credit union, and free financial consultation services to help members through this stressful time.

Patricia Kimmel, President/CEO of Belvoir Federal Credit Union, stated “We truly hope a government debt default is averted and, that our elected officials decide on a continuing resolution; however, if this is not the case, we stand ready to provide relief and assistance to our members that may be impacted.”
