Belvoir Federal Credit Union to Host 6th Annual Installation Appreciation Day on Fort Belvoir

Woodbridge, VA, July 6, 2011 — Belvoir Federal Credit Union will host the 6th Annual Installation Appreciation Day, 11 a.m. to 2 p.m., Saturday, July 23, at Fort Belvoir, VA. Installation Appreciation Day is a way for Belvoir Federal to celebrate Fort Belvoir's military and civilian communities.

"Installation Appreciation Day is a chance for us to honor the men and women who serve our country and their families," said Belvoir Federal CEO Patricia Kimmel. "Belvoir Federal Credit Union is proud to serve Fort Belvoir, and we are privileged to host this annual event."

Kimmel and other Fort Belvoir leaders will address the Installation Appreciation Day crowd at noon. Among the scheduled speakers are Fort Belvoir Commander Col. John Strycula and Col. Susan Annicelli, commander of the state-of-the-art Fort Belvoir Community Hospital, which is scheduled to open Aug. 10.

Installation Appreciation Day visitors can meet former Washington Redskins tight end and current ESPN 980 personality Doc Walker, D.C.'s Favorite Cheerleaders and the Potomac National's mascot Slammy. Activities available for children include a rock climbing wall, moon bounce and clown, as well as face painting and balloon animals. Visitors will have the chance to win more than 20 prizes, including a free cruise. Local radio station 105.9 The Edge will provide music.

Installation Appreciation Day is open to the general public. Visitors who do not have a vehicle with a DoD decal must enter through Tulley Gate, located just off U.S. Route 1. Visit www.BelvoirCreditUnion.org/iad2011 for more information about Installation Appreciation Day.
